MHE SUPERIORESS of the ITALIAN CON-- VENT. Caine Road, begs-most respectfully to APPEAL to the Residents of Hongkong and the Coast Ports for their kind PATRONAGE and SUPPORT. At present, owing to the daily increasing number of the Orphans, foundling Children, and destitute Women, who already exceed 'Five Hundred,' the Superioress finds herself in pressing need of further assistance. She has no fund at her disposal, the whole of the means available being earned by laborious Needle-work. The Superioress therefore desires to state that she will be pleased to receive Orders for Gentlemen's SHIRTS and PYJAMAS, Ladies' Under-clothing, and Children's DRESSES and UNDER-CLOTHING, EMBROIDERY in any Form, and in Gold, Silk, Wool or Cotton, also REGIMENTAL EMBROIDERY. MATERIALS SUPPLIED if required, and Persons living at a distance can send Orders by Letter. As the Terms are very moderate the Superioress hopes to receive and merit a large share of Public Patronage.

MOORE'S GOGO SHAMPOO WASH.

THIS WASH HAS PROVED ITSELF TO BE THE BEST PREPARATION EVER PRE-SENTED TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Bases of this compound is made of Gogo Root. The natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; you never see them hald, and it is quite common to see the females at 4 p.m. with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By using this SHAMPOO WASH as directed, you will never be bald. The Proprietor offers the Wash to the public, being entirely confident that by its restorative proper ies it will surely arrest decaying hair, completely eradicate sourf, dandruff, and cure all diseases of the scalp; it does not contain any poisonous drugs, but, by its cooling properties allays the itching and fover of the acalp, Mr. Moore has succeeded in being able to put this Wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee > examined were Mr John Andrew, Chang Mui, Pau Shing, Leung Ayee, Li Atan and Ng Asam. The trial will be resumed at cloven o'clock to-morrow morning.

An inquiry was held at the office of the British Consul in San Francisco into the circumstances attending the collision between the Oceanic and the City of Chester. The following was the finding:—That the master, John Metcalfe, certificate. No. 33,762, and Louis Meyer, the pilot, ape peared to have navigated the steamship Oceanic in a safe and proper manner, and when the casualty was apparently inevitable to have done everything in their power to avert the calamity. The chief officer, George G. Tilston, certificate 99,147; G. E. Bridgett, second officer, certificate No. 254, and the other officers and crew were each and all at their respective stations. Proper discipline appears to have been properly maintained, and all orders properly attended to, the boats, which were immediately manned, being the means of saving many lives. The Court has no ground for blaming any of the above officers or crew on board the steamship Oceanic, but desires to record its praise for the manner that each and all next and al manner that each and all performed his duty. The Court can only attribute the cause of the collision to the steamship City for the copy of a telegram received by him of Chester having been caught in the strong eddy tide off Fort point, and the flood tide taking her on the port bow, causing her to run against her starboard helm and scroud the bows of the Oceanic. The Court makes

THE Straits Times says :- The Municipality has had to give in to the Government on the Loan question, after vainly trying to secure better terms in the direction of interest at 41 per cent. The Government would not budge from the standpoint of 5 per cent. interest, though the finance of the Colony admit of a more literal policy towards the Board. The latter, finding that there was no help for it, submitted to the Government demand. The Government may perhaps claim credit for not taking advantage of the necessity of the Municipality to exact still higher terms. As 5 per cent, is not likely to find much favour among investors, the Government will have interest at 4 per cent.

New York, August 29 .- The Mail and Express' London cable special says: Goneral Boulanger having started for Sweden. travelling incognito, the Opportunists are now agitating a measure for the defeat of Boulanger by the abolition of the system of election by list, which they admit was useful in the hands of Gambetta, but assert that it is baneful in the hands of an adventurer such as Boulanger. Other attempts will be made to discredit the General. It is reported that at the opening of the Senate M. Tirard intends to propose an inquiry into the Boulangist conspiracy, which would lead to the passage of a law of ex-LABOUCHERE GOSSIPS ABOUT BISMARCK.

London, August 28 .- Prince Biamarck has been seriously out of health for the last two months. He was much tried by Emperer William's death and by the conflicts which incossantly prevailed during the reign of his successors. He has lately suffered from insomnia and been well desed with bromide of ammonia draughts. He walks very little, and has quite lest his appotite. Some time ago the Prince ceased to observe the regimen prescribed by Dr. An eccentric will is to be tested in the Schwerninger, commenced to smoke incessantly, and drank ten or twelve tumblers mand at Friederichsruhe, and his patient is confined to a nourishing but very simple diet. His only drink is a little weak whisky and water. I hear from well-informed correspondents in Germany that Bismarck is suffering severely both in mind

The headstrong Emperor is drawing away from the Chancellor's control, for his hasty journey to Russia was undertaken against Bismarck's wishes, and he strongly disapproves of the impending expedition to Rome. What, however, has most deeply wounded the enraged Bismarck is the retirement of Count von Moltke, which in reality took place in consequence of a hint that such steps would be highly acceptable to the Emperor, who desired his friend, Count Walderzee, who is an object of Bismarck's deep aversion, as the Count is not only a consummate soldier, but also a shrowd, active politician, and both he and his clever wife exercise great influence over the Emperor and Empress. The Count. who is the most prominent member of the war party, is known to differ from the Chancellor in many points.

THE POPE'S POLICY. New York, August 27 .- A cable special from London to the Mail and Expressays: Monsiqueur Persico's mission to Ireland is noky and Signor Crispi dined together, and | finally closed. The Vatican has counterafter dinner both granted an audience to manded the order for his return to Ireland, representatives of the press. They stated and directed him to remain in London and negotiate for the resumption of diplomatic relations with Great Britain. All the Irish Catholic prelates and a section of those in England, headed by Cardinal Manning, have vainly brought pressure upon the Vatican with a view to the recall of Persico. day. The Vatican's policy of a closer alliance with the English Government keeps Persico here as a special envoy. He has had two private interviews with the Queen.
